

CANADA BURSARY YORK UNIVERSITY TORONTO

FOR MEDIENINFORMATIK (B.Sc. FROM 5TH SEMESTER), HCI (M.Sc.) OR CS4DM (M.Sc.)

As part of the Erasmus+ and KA107 programmes, the Faculty of Media will be awarding a five-month bursary in 2021/2022 for a semester to be spent abroad at one of the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar's partner universities: York University in Toronto, Canada. The bursary will be awarded to a student from one of the following degree programmes: Medieninformatik (B.Sc., from 5th semester), HCI (M.Sc.), or CS4DM (M.Sc.). With around 50,000 students, York University is the third largest university in Canada. Since 2019, the Faculty of Media has been working in close collaboration with its School of the Arts, Media, Performance & Design.

Partner university:

York University Toronto, Canada
School of the Arts, Media, Performance & Design
<https://computationalarts.ampd.yorku.ca/>

Study Period:

Winter semester 2021/22 or
Summer semester 2022

Bursary:

Duration: max. 5 months
Residence allowance: € 700 per month
Travel allowance: € 820 (one-off payment)

Application requirements and procedure:

- by 15. January 2021 latest at: <https://www.uni-weimar.de/de/universitaet/international/ins-ausland/austauschstudium-an-einer-partneruniversitaet/bewerbung/>
- letter of motivation in English (at least one side of A4) and current CV
- proof of very good English-language competence (TOEFL iBT score min. 83 / IELTS min. 6.5)
- overview of current academic record
- possible selection interview at the Faculty of Media, February 2021

For further questions, contact:

Annette Reese (International Counsellor, Faculty of Media)
E-Mail: annette.reese@uni-weimar.de