

Exploring the relationship between the perception of reality and our understanding of time through water (?)

- Everything I know
- Everything I don't know

become or REFLECTION ILLUSION

< WATER
SKY NATURE

Water, as a metaphor ----
Water, as a reflective surface
Water as a transformative nature (gas, solid, liquid)

My starting point
questioning the reality
what is our limits?
what is our boundaries?
?(Digital) Virtual Reality
? Physical Reality

- Start there is no ending
- finish ~~but~~ i am not sure about the beginning
